LEFTISTS MEET IN CLEAR LAKE

(The Washington Post News Service)

CLEAR LAKE, IA. -- Members of the leftist Students for a Democratic Society (S. D. S.) opened a five-day national convention Sunday at the Methodist Youth Camp here.

Roy Dahlgren of Chicago, Ill., co-ordinator of the group's fourth annual convention, said about 300 members already had registered. He is a sociology graduate of California State College at Hayward.

Morning discussions centered around "electoral politics" in the United States.

Afternoon discussions dealt with "American involvement in the Third World -- the Underdeveloped Countries," during which several speakers defended the National Liberation Front (Viet Cong) in Viet Nam and others attacked U. S. involvement there.

Evening sessions were concerned with American foreign policy.

Subjects to be discussed Tuesday include "Working With Communism," defense contracts and organizing S. D. S. groups on small college campuses. Wednesday's topics include "Anti-War and the Draft" and adult education.

Available at the Sunday sessions were various leftist publications.

In attendance were members of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee and Congress of Racial Equality. A workshop on "black power" was among those scheduled.

Dungarees, cut-off jeans and sneakers or tennis shoes seemed to be the favored dress of both men and women attending the sessions. About 20 per cent of those at Sunday's sessions were women.

Discussions were informal with participants drifting in and out. One observer said the crowd appeared split into three groups, with one enjoying swimming and sunning at the lake, another standing around outside the sessions and talking, and others at the workshops.

Dear [REDACTED]

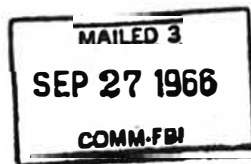

Your letter of September 21st has been received and the interest that prompted you to write is appreciated.

With respect to your inquiry, the only information I can furnish you regarding the organization to which you referred appears in my article, "Turbulence on the Campus," which I am enclosing together with some additional material which I trust will be of interest.

I might state that prior to becoming affiliated with any organization it is well to examine its aims and purposes and consider whether these are being accomplished by legal and orderly procedures.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover

Dear Sirs:

I am a freshman at North Texas State University in Denton, Texas. As are all students I was given a piece of paper inviting me to join the Students For A Democratic Society. The Advertise makes becoming a member of the Society sound interesting, challenging and perhaps even beneficial.

Before affiliating myself with this organization I must be absolutely certain that it is totally American with no subversive elements. If there is any reason why this Society is not completely sanctioned by the United States Government please immediately inform me.

Sincerely yours,

COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF THE
STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Character: INTERNAL SECURITY - C

Synopsis: In 7/66 SDS National Headquarters moved to Room 206, 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, which building is owned by JOHN ROSSEN, who admitted he quit the Communist Party (CP) in 1956. SDS, consisting of 3,500 to 5,000 members in 200 chapters nationally and 153 to 178 members in Chicago, considers itself a "broad" movement designed to attract people with a wide range of special interests concerning such issues as peace, civil rights, poverty and educational reform. Recently through its community action group, Jobs or Income Now (JOIN), headquartered at 4533 North Sheridan Road, Chicago, SDS, has taken on an active program against alleged police brutality. The SDS Chicago Regional Office is located at 2059 North Larrabee, Chicago. National officers along with editors of "New Left Notes," SDS weekly newspaper, set out. In 9/66 SDS had $4,378 in outstanding debts and was in financial difficulties. C. CLARK KISSINGER, National SDS member at large, attended recent CP, USA, National Convention as observer. At 6/66 Illinois CP State Board meeting question of how CP could establish ties with youth organizations like SDS was discussed. At 7/66 Chicago CP meeting it was mentioned CP was going to try and recruit SDS people. At SDS National Convention 8/27-9/1/66

CG 100-40903

Clear Lake, Iowa, position of SDS working with communists was discussed and it was stated "The question is no longer whether or not we should work with communists but how can we work together. In working together we can cause the revolution sooner." At the National Council meeting following the convention there was a heated discussion on whether people in SDS belonging to other organizations should be required to disclose the identity of these organizations to SDS. SDS members attended National Convention of W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America (DCA) in 6/66. In 7/66 GREGORY CALVERT, now SDS National Secretary, indicated he would use influence in SDS to help DCA in holding National Action meeting against war in Viet Nam at Washington, D.C., 8/27-28/66. Connections of SDS with Socialist Workers Party and/or Young Socialist Alliance set out. Participants from Chicago at SDS National Convention reported. Local activities of SDS and/or JOIN against war in Viet Nam, Selective Service examinations, giving out of class ranks to Selective Service, public welfare system, House Committee Against Un-American Activities, and police brutality set out. On 9/1/66 police raided JOIN headquarters, seized narcotics, an obscene letter, subversive literature, and made arrests.

DETAILS: AT CHICAGO, ILLINOIS

I. PREDICATION

This investigation of the Chicago Chapter of the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) and the National organization SDS, was initiated by the Chicago Office of the FBI to determine the extent of Communist Party (CP) infiltration in the SDS and/or if the organization is a special target for infiltration. The FBI is not interested in the legitimate activities of the SDS.

[REDACTED] b1

[REDACTED] b1

The following organizations, mentioned in this report, which have not been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450 are characterized in the Appendix Section of this report:

Camp Unity

Committee to Aid the Bloomington Students
Fair Play for Cuba Committee, Chicago Chapter and National Freedom of the Press Committee
Friday Night Socialist Forum
Pittsburgh Committee to End the War in Viet Nam
Praga Press
Progressive Labor Party
Socialist Workers Party, Chicago Branch
W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America
W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of Chicago
Women's International Democratic Federation
Young Socialist Alliance, Chicago and national
May 2 Movement

II. ORGANIZATION

A. Headquarters, Origin, Scope and Stated Aims

The SDS was the youth group of the League for Industrial Democracy (LID) up until late 1965, when they amicably broke, apparently to maintain the LID's tax exempt status for contributors to that organization with the Treasury Department.

The LID, which has its national headquarters in New York City, is an organization made up of socialists. The SDS, as the organization is known today, was formed on a national basis in 1960 and considers itself a "broad" movement designed to attract people with a wide range of special interests covering such issues as peace, civil rights, poverty and educational reform. Recently, through its community action group, Jobs Or Income Now (JOIN) headquartered at 4533 North Sheridan Road, Chicago, SDS has taken on an active program against alleged police brutality. The SDS considers itself to be of the left political persuasion and will welcome as members, all elements of the left wing including revolutionary Marxists.

The SDS originally had its headquarters in New York City, but moved its national headquarters to Chicago, Illinois, in May, 1965. The SDS headquarters formerly located at 1103 East 63rd Street, Chicago, sub-let some of its office space to the Chicago Committee to End the War in Viet Nam (CCEWVN), which is now apparently defunct.

In July, 1966, SDS moved its headquarters to Room 206, 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, which building is owned by JOHN ROSSEN, who has long been active in subversive circles in Chicago. The SDS also maintains its Chicago regional headquarters at 2059 North Larabee, Chicago. Since coming to Chicago, the SDS has worked with other left groups on the issue of protesting the war in Viet Nam. These groups are the W.E.B. DuBois Club of Chicago, the Young Socialist Alliance, the Progressive Labor Party, and the May 2 Movement. In general, the SDS has in the

that it will work with any organization including Communists, which protests the United States intervention in Viet Nam and the Selective Service Systems methods for drafting youth to fight in Viet Nam, etc.

The SDS has a current program of protesting the draft and actively promotes a campaign for youth to develop a conscientious objector status. The basis of the SDS program is that the United States intervention in Viet Nam is an "unjust war" and they assert this conclusion on moral, political and religious grounds.

In connection with the Draft, some of the radical elements within the SDS have been involved in draft card burning, however, the National Office claims to object to such tactics, but at the same time leaves such actions up to the individual SDS members.

The SDS in the Chicago area has chapters located at the University of Chicago (approximately 50 members); Roosevelt University (approximately 35 members); University of Illinois, Chicago Campus (approximately 17 members); Illinois Institute of Technology, Chicago, Illinois (approximately 11 members); Northwestern University, Evanston, Illinois (approximately 30-50 members); Northern Illinois University, DeKalb, Illinois, (approximately 10-15 members), and Lake Forest College, Lake Forest, Illinois, (approximately 10 members).

Nationally the SDS claims a membership of varying amounts, none of which appear to be very accurate. This membership, at various times during the past few months, ranged from 3,500 to 5,000 members in over 200 chapters.

The SDS also has an Economic Research and Action Project (ERAP), a Radical Educational Project (REF) and its JOIN Program, previously mentioned, which is the SDS Community Action Program among the poor, deprived, and unemployed people in the Chicago area.

The League for Industrial Democracy (LID)

Volume 1, Report of the House Committee of Representatives, Special Committee to Investigate Un-American Activities, Washington, D. C., dated August 12, 1938, pages 683-690, notes that in 1905 American revolutionists organized the "Inter-Collegiate Society" which organization was renamed in 1921 as the "League for Industrial Democracy". The movement was organized for the purpose of promoting intelligent interest in Socialism among college men and women, graduates and undergraduates.

III. SDS Officers

A. National Officers of SDS

The "New Left Notes", Volume 1, Number 25, July 8, 1966 issue lists the following as SDS officers:

CARL OGLESBY, President
JEFFRY SHERO, Vice-President
JANE ADAMS, National Secretary.

The "New Left Notes", Volume 1, Number 26 and 27, July 15, and 22, 1966, issue in an article entitled "NAC Minutes - July 18", states that BOB SPECK announced his intention to leave SDS for personal reasons on July 25 or 26, 1966, leaving open his position as "New Left Notes" editor and Assistant National Secretary. SPECK emphasized the need for a replacement who could do the job of office manager and keep up on supplies. It is felt that it was necessary that this replacement have the authority and information connected with the office of Assistant National Secretary. Among the problems discussed was the putting out of sufficient numbers of issues of "New Left Notes" to retain the SDS' second class mailing permit, etc. GREG CALVERT was apparently acting Assistant National Secretary with the primary responsibility of the job of SDS office manager and editor of "New Left Notes". It was understood that a new editor for "New Left Notes" would be sought out to replace CALVERT after the forthcoming SDS National Convention.

The "New Left Notes", Volume 1, Number 33, September 2, 1966 issue, lists the following as SDS officers:

CARL OGLESBY, President
JEFFRY SHERO, Vice-President
JANE ADAMS, National Secretary.

CG 100-40903

The "New Left Notes", Volume 1, Number 35, September 16, 1966, issue, in an article entitled "Convention Report - National Officers Report", states that on the evenings of September 1 and 3, 1966, during the SDS National Convention and Council meeting held at Clear Lake, Iowa, the following National Officers and National Council members - at large, were elected:

President, NICK EGLESON,
Swarthmore College,
Swarthmore, Pennsylvania

Vice-President, CARL DAVIDSON,
University of Nebraska
Lincoln, Nebraska

National Secretary, GREGORY CALVERT,
Chicago, Illinois

Assistant National Secretary, NANCY BANCROFT
Arlington, Virginia (Until NANCY takes this position over, it will be held by JANE ADAMS)

SDS National Council Members At-Large:

JANE ADAMS, Chicago, Illinois
NANCY BANCROFT, Arlington, Virginia
TOM CONDIT, Chicago, Illinois.
CAROLYN CRAVEN, Berkley, California
MIKE DAVIS, Los Angeles, California
ROY DAHLBERG, San Francisco, California
BILL HARTZOG,
MIKE JAMES, Chicago, Illinois
MARK KLEIMAN, Evanston, Illinois
STEVE KINDRED, Mason City, Iowa
University of Chicago, Chicago, Illinois
TERRY ROBBINS, Cleveland, Ohio
JEFF SHERO, Austin, Texas
BOB SPECK,
LEE WEBB.

CG 100-40903

Alternates:

HAL BENENSON, New York, New York
BOB ROSS, Chicago, Illinois
TOM BELL, Ithaca, New York
JOHN MAHER, MIT and Boston University, Boston, Massachusetts
JOHN FUERST, New York, New York

Also elected were seven members for the National Administrative Committee. Those elected were:

TOM CONDIT
STEVE KINDRED
BRENT KRAMER
PAUL LAUTER
EARL SILBAR
JEAN TEPPERMAN
JOIN - Chicago (probably means a representative of that organization)

Alternates:

(RICHARD) BERKOWITZ
(STAN) TEPLICK.

In addition to above, the National Secretary, GREGG CALVERT and Assistant National Secretary, NANCY BANCROFT will automatically serve on the National Administrative Committee (NAC); however, NANCY BANCROFT will not be able to take office until later in the Fall. Until that time, JANE ADAMS will be the SDS National Secretary.

B. Editor of "New Left Notes"

The "New Left Notes", Volume 1, Number 29, August 5, 1966, issue lists GREG CALVERT as editor.

The "New Left Notes", Volume 1, Number 25, July 8, 1966 issue, in an article entitled "June 3 NAC Minutes" reveals that PAUL LE BLANC reported that SDS had outstanding major debts of $2,733.89 and that the SDS current bank account stood at $132.79. LE BLANC moved that no money should be spent which was not authorized by the NAC and that allocations of money should be made once a week at the NAC meeting. The person in charge of finances shall make a report at each NAC meeting on the financial condition of the National Office. Those who wish to have money allocated for something should be at the NAC meeting to make the request. This motion was passed. LE BLANC also moved that ARLEYN WEISSMAN be trained to take over finances which was also passed.

The "New Left Notes", Volume I, Number 28, July 29, 1966 issue, in an article entitled "NAC Minutes" stated that an NAC meeting was held July 23, 1966, in Chicago. At this meeting it was decided that former staff members who were owed back salary shall be paid $15 per week until such debts are eliminated. It was decided further that present staff members who are owed back salary shall be paid $10 in addition until such debts are eliminated.

[REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED] janitor for the building, one SAM COLLINS, was working in concert with JOIN and as a matter of fact has told [REDACTED] that he "was sent by JOIN to break up the building."

The "New Left Notes," Volume 1, Number 30, August 12, 1966, issue in an article entitled "NAC Minutes" states that finances were discussed at an August 8, 1966, meeting of the NAC in Chicago. It was mentioned that a problem exists between SDS and JOIN. SDS has raised a good deal of money on what JOIN is doing. JOIN borrowed $800 and only repaid $500. It was decided that the two organizations should not be in competition with one another and should work out problems of fund raising by merging their fund raising lists and setting up alternating arrangements for raising funds.

The "New Left Notes," Volume 1, Number 35, September 16, 1966, in an article entitled "NAC Discusses Finances," reveals that a National Administrative Committee meeting was held on September 13, 1966, in Chicago. At this meeting it was mentioned that SDS has $4,378 in outstanding debts, approximately $2,000 of which must be paid by the end of the month. This is a reduction from $4,700 in debts outstanding at the time of the June National Council meeting. $2,300 of the total is debts remaining from that period. The same issue of instant newspaper in an article entitled "Ideology at Clear Lake" states that before the National Convention, ROY DAHLBERG, Convention Coordinator, insisted that SDS needed at least $3,000 to cover the secondary expenses, printing, travel and extra telephone calls (of the Clear Lake SDS National Convention and Council meeting), and that money was not forthcoming. At the present time the National Office has $4,300 in outstanding bills. Of that amount $2,300 represents debts incurred before June 15, 1966. The article states that at the time of a finance appeal issued by the National Office in last June, 1966, SDS owed $4,700 in back debts and that SDS was able to liquidate $2,400 of these debts thanks largely to an SDS June appeal ~~for~~ funds. According to the article, the $2,300 remaining indebtedness must be paid off in the near future. The article states the additional $2,000 represents debts for the convention issue of "New Left Notes" - $1,500 - plus the large telephone bill necessitated by the convention.

The article concludes that unless the financial obligation is taken seriously "New Left Notes" will no longer be published and literature, which SDS needs so badly will not be printed and the National Office will not remain open.

V. INTEREST SHOWN BY CP IN THE
SDS AND AFFILIATIONS OF
SDS WITH THE CP

On May 24, 1966, at a meeting of the CP Youth Club held in Chicago, Illinois, BOB WOODS gave a report on the CP draft discussion. He said that only 11 people showed up for the meeting which included one local SDS leader. In spite of poor attendance, the discussion handled by DAVE ENGLESTEIN went well in spite of some vaguely anti-Party statements by an SDS person. However, this SDS person expressed a willingness to attend further discussions although no effort was made to pin down a date or place. According to WOODS, this discussion was held at the Wabash YMCA on May 23, 1966, in Chicago. The SDS leader attending this affair was CLARK KISSINGER.

[REDACTED] b7D

The "New Left Notes," Volume 1, #25, July 8, 1966, issue contains an article entitled "Communist Convention Report" by C. CLARK KISSINGER, member at large of the SDS, National Council. In this article, KISSINGER reported on his attendance at the National Convention of the CP recently held in New York as a principal observer of the SDS. In this article, KISSINGER gave his impressions concerning the convention and thanked the CP for permitting him to attend the convention.

At a meeting of the State Board, CP of Illinois, held in Chicago on June 29, 1966, JACK KLING indicated they must clear up the objectives for the Party Youth Club. There are three objections: First and central is the building of the DuBois Club in two areas, the near north side and the west side; second how to establish ties with other youth organizations, particularly the SDS; and third, the building of the Party.

[REDACTED] 670

On July 27, 1966, at a meeting of the CP held in Chicago, MIKE ZAGARELL spoke on the Party school to be held August 29 through September 14, 1966 at New York. He said that the school was not going to be limited to Party members and asked that Party members suggest non-Party people who are honest and close to the Party to attend. He said also that special discussion groups would be set up for the teen-age youth and also that there would be a leading young communist who would have discussions with non-communist members in the peace movement, mainly with the hope of recruiting some of these people into the Party. Along this line, he mentioned such groups as the SDS. JIM PEAKE, who was also present at this meeting, and MIKE ZAGARELL will be working on the job of speaking to many of these people.

[REDACTED] 870

At the SDS National Convention held at Clear Lake, Iowa, August 27, 1966, through September 1, 1966, a workshop was held on the evening of August 29, 1966, on the SDS position on working with communists. The panelists were: BETTINA APTHEKER, CARL BLOICE, JEFF LONDON and JERRY LONG. HAI BENENSON headed the panel. It was stated by the panelists "The question is no longer whether or not we should work with communists but how we can work together. In working together we can cause a revolution sooner." During this panel discussion, it was made quite clear that SDS was infiltrated by members of the CP, [REDACTED] Progressive Labor Party.

Following the National Convention of the SDS at Clear Lake, Iowa, a SDS National Council meeting began on the evening of September 2, 1966. There was a debate which lasted about six hours and became very heated. It started over a proposal introduced by JIM KAPLAN which reads as follows: SDS requests that candidates for positions of responsibility within SDS who are under the discipline of another political organization shall inform those bodies which elect or appoint them of the fact. The above proposal failed by a vote of 1 for, 41 against and 10 abstaining.

When this failed, another proposal was introduced which also failed, by a vote of 3 for and 46 against. It reads as follows: The National Council of SDS notes that there is a new interest in SDS on the part of such internally disciplined groups as the Communist Party and Progressive Labor Party which in places is intense enough to raise problems for SDS chapters which are dedicated to radical democracy. Insofar as these problems can only be handled where they arise, the National Council suggests that it is the business of the chapters so confronted to deal with their own situation, and encourages them to do so in a democratic education oriented fashion. On the national level, the National Council encourages education by means of political discussion in 'New Left Notes,' radical education projects and the listing of articles. Specifically, 'New Left Notes' should run at least one article which discusses issues of openness, internal discipline, and strength of these organizations within SDS.

CARL OGLESBY helped write the above but did not put his name on it. During the debate on the above proposed resolution JARED ISRAEL from the Harvard chapter said that he was a member of Progressive Labor and was open about it and so were all other members of subversive organizations. HAL BENNENSON said that he knew of about 20 people in the Boston chapter of SDS and they do not like it known that they are members of either PLP or the CP, but that the SDS people work together well with these two organizations. STEVE KINDRED got very upset during the debate and called it witch-hunting and Carthyism and stormed out.

VI. CONNECTION OF THE SDS WITH THE
W. E. B. DU BOIS CLUBS OF AMERICA
(DCA)

On June 7, 1966, at a meeting of the CP Youth Club held in Chicago, JACK KLING mentioned that the SDS chapter at Northwestern University stated that they would join the DCA en masse and although KLING felt that this was not a realistic goal, perhaps SDS could send people to the DCA convention. Someone shouted out that the SDS National Council meeting at Ann Arbor, Michigan, would be in conflict with the DuBois convention. However, it was decided that efforts would be made to get people from JOIN, civil rights groups, etc., to attend the DuBois convention.

[REDACTED]

At the National Convention of the DCA held June 17, 1966, there were 200 members plus 100 guests and observers present from other peace groups. Among the groups represented was the SDS.

[REDACTED]

A planned meeting of the DCA was held July 16, 1966, in Chicago, Illinois. This meeting was called to discuss the proposed DCA National Action in Washington, D. C., for August 27 and 28, 1966. Proposed was a two-day Action, the first day consisting of workshops on the problems of the American youth with emphasis on the war in Viet Nam, unemployment, and police brutality. The camp-out on Saturday night, the 27th, was to be as near the White House as possible with a night of entertainment with prominent entertainers, and a mass assembly on Sunday at which a program for political action would be presented reflecting the previous day's discussions. The Action is to conclude with a mass march either on the White House or some other place. GREG CALVERT of SDS said he could not endorse this action, for [REDACTED] organization but he would encourage certain local SDS projects to support it and that he personally would work in SDS in support of such action.

VII. CONNECTIONS OF THE SDS WITH THE SOCIALIST WORKERS
PARTY (SWP) AND/OR THE YOUNG
SOCIALIST ALLIANCE (YSA)

A meeting of the Friday Night Socialist Forum sponsored by the YSA was held in Chicago on May 27, 1966. The purpose of this meeting was to hold a memorial for three Wayne State University students who were shot by an assassin on May 16, 1966, at the office of the Socialist Workers Party and YSA, Detroit, Michigan. Among the speakers was CLARK KISSINGER, who said that although the assassin was mentally disarranged, he held President JOHNSON responsible for the condition that brought about the assassin's act.

[REDACTED]

At a Chicago YSA Executive Committee meeting held June 8, 1966, in Chicago a leave of absence was approved for JOEL BRITTON, who was present at this meeting, to attend the SDS National Conference on independent political action to be held in Ann Arbor, Michigan, from June 25-30, 1966. Also at this meeting it was learned that the SDS National Office would print leaflets at cost for the YSA. This offer of help by SDS to YSA was approved.

[REDACTED]

At an Executive Committee meeting held June 22, 1966, by the Chicago YSA a report was read by the National Executive Committee on the importance of supporting the Black Panther Party (BPP). It was mentioned that locally the YSA might be able to involve the SDS, etc., in supporting work such as selling brochures and a pamphlet on the BPP that the YSA has published.

[REDACTED]

At a Chicago SWP branch meeting held July 12, 1966, in Chicago DAVE WULP gave the youth report. He reported on the recent SDS National Council meeting held in Michigan. His report was taken from a report prepared by the YSA National Office.

[REDACTED]

On July 12, 1966, at a meeting of the Chicago Branch SWP held in Chicago, JOEL BRITTON gave a report on an SDS meeting held in Michigan. He remarked that there were not many in attendance at this affair and that the SWP and SDS are both supporting the International Days of Protest scheduled for August 6-9, 1966.

[REDACTED]

On July 19, 1966, at a meeting of the Chicago Branch SWP held in Chicago, PETER BUCH described his tour through San Diego, Albuquerque, New Mexico, Phoenix, Arizona, Houston, Texas, and St. Louis, Missouri. He said that they have contacts and groups in these cities who take and sell bundles of the newsletter. While in Phoenix, BUCH said he stayed at the home of a college professor who sponsors an SDS group in one of the Arizona universities. b7D

IX. ACTIVITIES - LOCALLY

A. Puerto Rican Disturbance, Vicinity of Division and Damen Streets,
Chicago, Illinois, June 12, 1966

MIKE JAMES, who is in charge of the JOIN Office at 4533 North Sheridan Road, Chicago, which is the community action project of SDS, related in early June, 1966, that a group of JOIN staff people had recently gone to Cleveland, Ohio, to attend a conference of an unknown nature and would be back soon. JAMES stated that TOM MOSHER had been active for JOIN, organizing and contacting Puerto Ricans involved in the recent disorder at Division and Damen Streets, Chicago. It was source's understanding that MOSHER was trying to get together a number of English speaking Puerto Ricans to go with him and some other unknown individuals from JOIN to New York City to confer with some Puerto Ricans in that city. It was their intention to get assistance from these Puerto Ricans to help organize the Puerto Ricans in Chicago. This group from New York was to return with the Chicago group. The Chicago group was not leaving for New York until the staff people who were then in Cleveland returned. Source believed that the Chicago people would be going to New York in two or three days. In addition to the above, source learned from MIKE JAMES that MOSHER had been organizing bus trips in connection with civil rights matters in the South.

CG 100-40903

Source advised that TOM MOSHER of JOIN was currently active in the Puerto Rican community where recent disturbances took place, attempting to develop a following for JOIN.

In his contacts in the community, MOSHER was pointing out the squabbling which was going on between the Puerto Ricans who have attempted to assume leadership in the community. In addition, JOIN had three law students from New York who were presently in Chicago apparently to be part of the JOIN efforts in Chicago during the coming months.

The SDS, YSA, W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America (DCA), and others participated in a march against the war in Viet Nam on June 18, 1966, under the sponsorship of the Chicago Women's Committee to End the War in Viet Nam. The march started at Kimbark Shopping Center, 53rd and Woodlawn, proceeded to Harper Square, 53rd and Harper, the Hyde Park Shopping Center, 55th and Lake Park, and ended at the 5th Army Headquarters, 51st and Hyde Park Boulevard. There were approximately 70 people present.

The only speaker who talked to the marchers assembled before the armory stated that Negroes should not be ~~required~~ to fight in the war since they have no equal rights here in the United States. She further stated that the United States Government should cease fire, stop all bombings, and allow the Vietnamese people to choose their own government.

C. Participation in Meeting of
Students Against Rank (SAR)
June 23, 1966

On June 23, 1966, members of the SDS participated in a meeting of the SAR at the University of Chicago. At this meeting the SAR made proposals for action during this summer. This action called for the contacting of the faculty and trying to get easy concessions from them, then harder concessions afterwards. The meeting discussed presenting SAR views to freshmen in the fall, the contacting of high school principals, Congressmen, corporation managers, etc., and advising them of the SAR program. At the meeting it was decided that SAR would coordinate its activities with SDS to formulate specific demands to the university this coming fall. Arrangements were also made to stage a demonstration at the University of Chicago on August 1, 1966, or whatever date the university sends in students' ranks to the draft board.

At this meeting JACKIE GOLDBERG stated that "they" must decide whether they were to take a stand on 1) rank, draft, Selective Service; 2) the question of students and faculty being the deciding power at the University of Chicago; and 3) national foreign policy, i.e. the war.

GOLDBERG also indicated that she wanted a demonstration on Hiroshima Day and wanted SAR to take a positive stand against the war in Viet Nam.

Approval was given to select a Policy Committee to do a one month's study and formulate a definite policy. Also at the above meeting it was announced that Professor MAX PRIMACK of the Illinois Institute of Technology (IIT), who was not at the meeting, was organizing a Faculty Committee that will help students to stage speak-outs in front of the Federal Building in Chicago, Illinois.

D. Demonstration at Selective Service Exams, June 24, 1966

On June 24, 1966, a Selective Service examination was held at Roosevelt University, Chicago, Illinois, for students desiring deferment from the United States Armed Forces. Source stated that prior to the examination a few individuals in an orderly manner distributed copies of a SDS examination on Viet Nam assisted by the SDS.

[REDACTED] b7D

Similar Selective Service examinations were held the same day as above at the University of Chicago and the University of Illinois at Chicago, Illinois. A few individuals also in an orderly manner distributed copies of the SDS examination on Viet Nam at these universities.

E. SDS Regional Conference
June 25, 1966

The Regional Conference of the SDS was held at the University of Chicago on June 25, 1966.

STEVE BAUM, Regional Coordinator of SDS, opened the conference. Reverend JAMES BEVEL, representing the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), spoke on the civil rights movement and urged non-violence as a means toward achieving their ends. He stated this is a realistic position because things can be accomplished without antagonizing the opposition and it does not alienate the white people working in the movement. Much more can be achieved through non-violence than through violence.

Reverend BEVEL stated that the Negro gangs should, rather than fighting among themselves, go downtown and get the jobs the out of town boys are now getting. He recommended that the minority groups attempt to dissolve the racist attitudes by redefining what a Negro is. That he is a [REDACTED] being with all the rights of other citizens and not the stereotyped image of the uneducated, subservient, ambitionless individual content with his lot, such as it is.

Once he has accepted his true status, it will be easy for others to accept him on equal terms and from there go on to work for his own social, economic and political betterment.

MONROE SHARP spoke on behalf of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC). He said it is generally thought that SNCC is dormant in the north and that is what he hopes the authorities think, so as to keep them "off our back." He outlined a summer project SNCC was planning for the 4th Ward in Chicago to gain political power. SHARP talked in terms of seceding, in effect, the ghettos from the city to be controlled politically, economically and industrially by the inhabitants of the area.

He also spoke of "instant agitation" whereby a central intelligence agency would accumulate information concerning injustices and indignities committed against Negroes and immediately make this information known to the inhabitants of the ghetto. A rally could then be held to determine what action to follow while these injustices were still fresh in their minds. He stated non-violence has its place but he recommended violence when results could not be attained through peaceful methods. He mentioned that gangs could be a tool to exert political pressure to gain the desired objectives. He also said it would be possible to gain revenue by collecting a fee from all trucks traveling through the ghetto.

RENNIE DAVIS, representing Jobs Or Income Now (JOIN) told of JOIN's efforts to organize on the north side of Chicago among the poor whites. He said the problems that exist there are the same as in the Negro ghettos, namely poor housing, insufficient job opportunities, antagonism by the police. He urged that pressure be brought to bear on landlords to improve housing; on the city administration to change the deteriorating neighborhoods and bring about urban renewal.

DAVIS compared the ghettos with the colonial empires of former times wherein the city and government administrations like the colonial powers held the natives in subjection. He stated that instead of the welfare of the poor being placed in the hands of incompetents, the government should give the [redacted] to the people of the neighborhood and leave the decision to them as to how to dispose it.

June 27, 1966

On June 27, 1966, the SDS Chapter of Northwestern University sponsored a lecture featuring ~~MALE~~ RUSSELL, who spoke to the group on the subject of the troubles in the country of China.

G. Demonstration Against RAYMOND HILLIARD
Head of the Cook County, Illinois Welfare
Office, 318 West Adams Street, Chicago,
Illinois, June 30, 1966

On June 30, 1966, SAs of the FBI observed a group of approximately 30 men, women and children depart from the headquarters of JOIN at approximately 10:40 AM. This group carried signs protesting the welfare system in Chicago. Some of these signs read:

"Our Sights Are On The Rights"

"22 Cent Meals - Means Hungry Kids"

"You Make The Rules, Recipients Suffer"

"We Want To Talk To Hilliard"

"We Want To Change"

"Recipients Have The Right To Organize"

The march was led by HARRIET TULMAN and TODD A. GITLIN, both members of the SDS and JOIN. The demonstrators marched on the sidewalks to the downtown area of Chicago. There were also three automobiles bearing similar signs, as previously mentioned, which followed the marchers to the welfare office. Also, on the same date SAs of the FBI observed approximately 30 individuals congregating at 1048 East 43rd Street, Chicago, Illinois, the headquarters of the Kenwood-Oakland Community Organization (KOCO). At about 10:30 AM this group began to sing freedom songs for approximately 20 minutes and at 10:50 AM they proceeded to march on the sidewalks to the Loop area of Chicago. Participants carried signs protesting the handling of welfare cases and more marchers joined the demonstrators along the route to the welfare office. This group was led by PRESTON HARWELL, Field Representative of the Coordinating Council of Community Organizations (CCCO), and Reverend JOSEPH HARNDT, Staff Member of KOCO. Kenwood - Crittenton Community C, OFC JH

This group, approximately 73 in number, arrived at the offices of RAYMOND HILLIARD, 318 West Adams Street, at 2:00 PM, where they joined the group from JOIN that had previously arrived. The demonstrators, which at no time exceeded more than 120 in number, peacefully picketed until approximately 4:00 PM and there were no incidents or arrests.

Literature passed out during the above marches and at the actual picketing itself consisted of a one-page flier entitled "We Are Marching For Our Rights". This literature was published jointly by JOIN and KOCO.

At the termination of the demonstration it was announced that the next demonstration would be a march on the State Capitol at Springfield, Illinois.

H. Demonstration Evanston, Illinois July 2, 1966

On July 2, 1966, an SA of the FBI observed observed the Northwestern University Chapter of SDS sponsor a demonstration at downtown Evanston, Illinois, Fountain Square from 1:00 PM to 3:00 PM in protest against the United States bombing of Hanoi and Haiphong. Approximately 18 persons participated and carried signs protesting United States participation in the Viet Nam war. During instant demonstration, which was peaceful, literature condemning the war was passed out.

I. Picketing of Montrose Urban Progress Center (MUPC), 901 West Montrose Street, Chicago, Illinois, July 20, 1966

CG 100-40903

On July 19, 1966, a demonstration involving 50 individuals occurred at the offices of MUPC, 901 West Montrose Street, Chicago, Illinois. The pickets carried signs indicating they represented JOIN, an action group of the SDS.

The demonstrators protested the lack of public opportunities at the MUPC which is under the guidance of the Chicago Committee of Urban Renewal, c. The pickets were also protesting what they considered an unjust firing of an individual formerly employed in this program. The demonstration began at 7:00 PM and ended at 10:00 PM and was peaceful. The pickets indicated they would resume picketing on July 20, 1966. On July 20, 1966, eight individuals picketed the MUPC Office at the same address from 10:00 AM to 1:00 PM. These demonstrators carried signs and distributed leaflets identifying themselves as the JOIN Community Union located 4533 North Sheridan Road. The signs protested the MUPC's efforts in connection with the war on poverty. Several of the signs the pickets carried read "War On Poverty Or War On Poor People" and "War Or War On Poverty". A leaflet distributed protested racial discrimination, hiring discrimination, and political discrimination.

L. Picketing of 20th District,
Chicago Police Department
(Summerdale Station), August 12, 1966

Source stated that a Chicago group calling themselves ~~the~~ the Uptown Goodfellows (UG) and members of JOIN, the latter being the community action group of SDS, were to march from JOIN headquarters, 4533 North Sheridan Road, Chicago, Illinois, to picket the 20th District of the Chicago Police Department (Summerdale Station), 1940 West Foster Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, starting at 7:00 PM, August 12, 1966. The purpose of the march was set out in the following literature obtained by the source from JOIN headquarters:

1) Leaflet: "Is he protecting you?" indicating the march was being sponsored by the UG.

2) Newsletter, Volume 2, No. 15, August 14, 1966, issue published by JOIN, 4533 North Sheridan which contains articles entitled, "March on Cops," "Do the Police Serve You", and "Doing Their Job?"

3) Leaflet: "Wanted Out of Uptown! Officer Sam Joseph - " Badge 11383. This leaflet further states, "Does Sam protect you? Or does he beat you?"

[REDACTED] 870

SAs of the FBI on August 12, 1966, observed some 125 to 140 persons march from JOIN headquarters, 4533 North Sheridan Road, Chicago, Illinois, at approximately 7:07 PM to the 20th District of the Chicago Police Department (Summerdale Station), 1940 West Foster Avenue, Chicago, Illinois. The group arrived at the station at approximately 8:20 PM after marching through congested areas of uptown Chicago. The group carried signs and sang songs protesting alleged police brutality. The group urged the setting up of a civilian review board to handle charges of police brutality. At the police station representatives of the group conferred with Captain HARRY O'DONNELL and other police officers while the remainder of the demonstrators marched around the police station with their picket signs.

Some thousand citizens, the majority of whom were friendly toward the police and in particular to SAM JOSEPH, watched the demonstration at the police station. The demonstration was peaceful and there were no arrests. There were a few minor incidents, such as an egg throwing by sympathizers of the police who greatly outnumbered the demonstrators. The above demonstration broke up at 9:30 PM with the police escorting the majority of the demonstrators back to JOIN headquarters with hecklers following.

Literature similar to that furnished by CG T-16 and CG T-24, previously mentioned, was passed out during the above march and picketing demonstration.

The following picket signs were carried by the demonstrators:

Police Protection - Not Police Brutality
Stop Police Brutality
Uptown Needs Love and Flowers - Not Police Brutality
We Demand a Civilian Review Board
Wanted - Corruption of Police Stopped
Sam Joseph - a Hero or a Coward
Sam Joseph Must Go
Wanted for Brutality - Sam Joseph, Star #11383
Wanted for Brutality - Sam Joseph
Wanted: Police Corruption Stopped
Clean Up Summerdale Now
Civilians Must Control Their Police

According to a source, UG is a neighborhood gang in the uptown Chicago area that the 20th District Police had almost completely broken up. The remainder of this group ever since has been greatly angered with the police department. Source learned that a number of the people who originally started the demonstration had been paid by UG and/or JOIN to participate. Source stated that many of the people who had received money to participate dropped out along the way at nearby taverns and never got to the police station. The following persons from UG participated:

CG 100-40903

- 1) JIM CURRY
- 2) DAVID ~~PURDUE~~ (the leader)
- 3) RALPH ~~THURMAN~~

In addition to participants from UG, mentioned above, two other individuals, both from JOIN named BOB LAWSON and ED STEINMAN participated. [REDACTED] 670

The "Chicago Sun-Times, a daily Chicago newspaper, August 12, 1966 issue in an article by RICHARD FOSTER entitled, "Southern Migrants March In Uptown, Charge Brutality" states that a group of white southern migrants and their supporters marched through the Uptown area of Chicago to the Summerdale Police Department on August 11, 1966, protesting "police brutality."

The article states in part:

"The young demonstrators, who said they had collected 50 affidavits charging police brutality, sang and chanted as they marched along North Side streets. Traffic was slightly disrupted, but a contingent of twelve policemen prevented any serious tie-ups.

"At the station, while six of their leaders met with District Comdr. Harry R. O'Donnell, the demonstrators were jeered by a crowd of neighborhood youngsters screaming epithets. No incidents of violence were reported.

"The demonstrators were led by Ralph Thurman, 23, chairman of the Uptown Good Fellows, an organization composed mainly of young Southern and Appalachian white migrants to Chicago.

"Representatives of the Tenants' Action Council and JOIN Community Union also took part. [REDACTED]

"The demonstrators directed much of their displeasure toward Patrolman Serges (Sam) Joseph, one of the department's most decorated officers. They called for either his transfer or dismissal, alleging he was the worst offender among Summerdale District policemen when it came to police brutality.

"Joseph 37, went before a police disciplinary board last year, accused of brutality. Supt. Orlando W. Wilson dismissed the charges against him.

"The demonstrators also called for establishment of a civilian police review board, an appointment with Wilson and an open hearing on 'police brutality'.

"After the meeting with O'Donnell, Thurman said "Their (the police) method of processing (brutality complaints) doesn't sound too efficient.'.....

"O'Donnell, after the meeting, said 'complaints and bouquets' about the policeman.

"He called Joseph an 'excellent' policeman, but declined to answer when asked if he would recommend that Joseph be transferred or fired.

"O'Donnell said he himself is 'powerless' to act on the complaints. He promised, however, that the grievances will be forwarded to police headquarters."

M. Demonstration Against House Un-American Activities Committee (HUAC), Federal Building, Chicago, Illinois, August 20, 1966

On August 20, 1966, an SA of the FBI observed a protest demonstration against the HUAC being held at the Federal Building, 219 South Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois. This demonstration was under SDS sponsorship and began approximately 1:10 PM and ended at 2:40 PM and was attended by only 70 persons with the audience ranging from 30 to 40 persons.

CG 100-40903

The demonstration featured speakers from the Chicago Committee to Defend the Bill of Rights, the W.E.B. DuBois Clubs, SDS, etc. Speakers and literature passed out at the meeting attacked the HUAC hearings, war in Viet Nam, and the recent injunction against civil rights demonstrations obtained by Mayor DALEY of Chicago. The speakers stated that Mayor DALEY's action was an unconstitutional blow against the right to dissent in the civil rights movement.

There were two minor incidents, one involving an alleged Nazi coming forth from the crowd and denouncing the speakers as communists.

N. Demonstration at City Hall,
September 10, 1966

Approximately 100 persons took part in a demonstration by JOIN, 4533 North Sheridan Road, Chicago, and the Tenants Action Council (TAC) at City Hall, Chicago, on September 10, 1966. The purpose of this demonstration was to protest alleged police brutality in the Uptown District of Chicago. Leaders of this group which failed to get an audience with Mayor DALEY were RENNIE DAVIS and DAVE PUCKETT. The following placards were carried by the demonstrators:

"We Are Marching on the Daley Machine, Community Union - JOIN"

"We Demand Quality Education in Uptown"

"Poor People Power"

"We Want Off Daley's Plantation"

"Uptown Demands a Civilian Review Board"

"We Want Welfare for the Poor"

"Stop Police Brutality"

The above demonstration was orderly and peaceful.

A. Raid by Illinois Bureau of Narcotics and the Chicago Police Department on United People Group and ~~JOIN~~ Headquarters, September 1, 1966

On September 1, 1966, [REDACTED] Illinois State Narcotics Bureau (ISNB), advised that the ISNB had obtained a search warrant for the headquarters of JOIN, the Community Action Group of SDS, 4533 North Sheridan, Road, Chicago, Illinois. The ISNB with the assistance of the Chicago Police were to conduct the search that evening. According to [REDACTED]

On September 2, 1966, [REDACTED] stated that the Chicago Police and ISNB at 9:00 PM, September 1, 1966, arrested five persons, including a Presbyterian minister, a City of Chicago employee, and an ex-convict who had recently served two years for armed robbery, in simultaneous raids on two community organizations in the Chicago Uptown area.

The five were charged with possessing dangerous drugs, marijuana, hypodermic needles and syringes. The minister was also charged with possessing obscene literature. The places raided were the JOIN headquarters and the offices of United People (UP), a Presbyterian community group fighting slums, alcoholism, etc., 1029 Wilson Avenue, Chicago. According to [REDACTED] the UP has been working closely with all groups including JOIN, religious groups, etc., in the Uptown area.

The persons arrested at the UP offices were Reverend GEORGE MOREY, age 46, of 4657 Malden Avenue, Chicago, and JACK C. HOLLINBECK, age 20, of 1629 Harding Avenue, Northfield, Illinois.

The Rev. Mr. MOREY identified himself as a Presbyterian minister and head of the United People group (UP). [REDACTED]

TODD ALAN GITLIN

Records of the New York City Police Department, as reviewed on May 27, 1966, reflected that TODD ALAN GITLIN, 536 South 4th Avenue, Ann Arbor, Michigan, date of birth January 6, 1943, was arrested on March 19, 1965, at 3:00 PM at the Chase Manhattan Plaza by [REDACTED] b7C

He was charged with violation of Section 722-2; 722-3; and 1851 of Penal Law (disorderly conduct and resisting arrest). GITLIN was picketing in front of Chase Manhattan Plaza, along with others who represented the SDS. They were protesting Chase Manhattan Bank's financial backing of "brutal South African tyranny".

GITLIN was found guilty of disorderly conduct, and the charge of resisting arrest was dropped.

GITLIN was in attendance and a speaker at the SDS National Council meeting held at McCormick Creek State Park, Bloomington, Indiana, from September 6-9, 1965. At this affair GITLIN conducted a meeting and it was [REDACTED] the outset that the major issue would be the draft. The program should be a long-term one. GITLIN said that what SDS would try to do is to meet the draft head-on and fight it even though it means going to jail. GITLIN said that it is not enough for SDS to think of ways just to dodge the draft. He said that SDS is trying to disrupt the war effort in that any anti-draft stand is basic to the stand against war. GITLIN further advised that no draft means no man power to fight the war. He further advised that the draft is undemocratic in nature and is like war itself. It exists only to make money for the war merchants, and that the draft movement should be related to civil rights with all of the campuses attacking the draft. GITLIN further stated that college chapters should question the legitimacy of forced ROTC programs where they exist and that SDS should set up protest booths near military recruitment booths on college campuses.

STEVE KINDRED

The November 7, 1965, issue of the New York Times Magazine in an article entitled, "Voice of the New Campus Underclass" by THOMAS R. BROOKS states that STEPHEN KINDRED advised of plans for an SDS Chapter at the University of Chicago, Chicago, Illinois. KINDRED further advised that he had just returned to Chicago after a year of working with peace groups in England.

The May 3, 1966, edition of the Chicago Maroon, a University of Chicago bi-weekly newspaper, stated that STEVE KINDRED was one of the initiators of the SDS sponsored statement calling for opposition to male class ranking and refusing use of their "educational effort" in such a ranking when it is furnished to the Selective Service System in connection with draft exemption.

CLARK KISSINGER

KISSINGER made arrangements for the appearance of HERBERT APTHEKER in a panel form at the University of Wisconsin on March 27, 1963.

[REDACTED]

Another source related that KISSINGER, the National Secretary of SDS, in addressing the SDS National Convention in Michigan on June 13, 1965, presented a program called "Kissinger's Project" or "Kissinger's Kamikaze". In this program KISSINGER proposed that SDS members deliberately violate the Espionage Act of 1917, certain provisions of the Smith Act of 1940, and specific codes of the Military Code of Justice, by entering United States military bases and passing out leaflets which would demoralize the servicemen, and suggest that they desert and adopt devious means to avoid service and direct participation in the Viet Nam war. b7D

ANITA MART, age 20, 2157 North Orchard, was charged with Criminal Trespass by Roosevelt University, Chicago, Illinois, authorities when she refused to leave the University where she had been participating in a "sit-in" at the University protesting the current Selective Service Draft Test, the ranking of students according to grades and urging a larger voice by students in University affairs. This arrest took place on the evening of May 19, 1966.

CARL OGLESBY

Source described OGLESBY as a "modern day Saul", completely and personally committed to the SDS program, enthusiastic in his work and the promotion of same. OGLESBY acknowledged that he was surprised at being elected President of SDS and realized he was, in part, President in name only. He said he would be going to personally visit Saigon, Viet Nam, etc., in the near future. His purpose for such a visit was not explained to source. He reported that in the fall of 1965, he would address United States Congress. He explained that while Congress was in session, SDS would enter and he would make himself heard. He said he knew he would be arrested but that he would be heard by Congress.

APPENDIXCOMMITTEE TO AID THE BLOOMINGTON STUDENTS

The May 19, 1963, issue of "The Indianapolis Star," an Indianapolis daily newspaper, contained an article relating that the Committee to Aid the Bloomington Students (CABS) had been formed as an outgrowth of the Young Socialist Alliance (YSA). The article related that the CABS was a fund raising unit dedicated to obtaining funds for the defense of three YSA members indicted under Indiana's 1951 Anti-Subversive Law.

A source advised on September 23, 1963, that the YSA document entitled, "Tasks and Perspectives for the New York Local" disclosed during September, 1963, that a National Committee to Aid the Bloomington Students had been set up in New York City. This document stated that the national CABS in New York City would coordinate and direct the CABS activities throughout the country.

On February 11, 1964, a second source advised that the primary purpose of the CABS, organized and controlled by the YSA, was to raise funds for the legal defense of YSA members indicted at Bloomington, Indiana. Source stated that the secondary purpose of this Committee was to propagandize the Bloomington defense and utilize this case as an introduction to the aims and objectives of the program of the YSA with the aim of campus recruitment.

The second source further advised on May 7, 1965, that the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) exercises indirect control of the CABS through control over the YSA leadership which operates the CABS. According to this source, CABS work by SWP members, who are not YSA members, is considered as Party work and as a means of building the SWP.

The April 13, 1964, issue of "The Militant," a weekly SWP newspaper, page 5, disclosed that on March 20, 1964, the indictments of the YSA members, mentioned above, were dismissed.

The February 1, 1965, issue of "The Militant," page 1, disclosed that on January 25, 1965, the Indiana Supreme Court upheld the constitutionality of Indiana's Anti-Subversive Law and reversed the dismissal of the indictments.

The April 12, 1965, issue of "The Militant" disclosed that the case is being appealed to a panel of three Federal Judges and that the CABS was attempting to raise $9,000 to cover operational and legal expenses.

FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE,
CHICAGO CHAPTER

A source advised in October, 1960, that the Chicago Chapter of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC) was formed during the summer of 1960 at Chicago, Illinois, under the direct guidance and leadership of RICHARD CRILEY, a member of the State Committee, Communist Party (CP) of Illinois.

A second source in August, 1960, furnished a leaflet entitled, "What Is Really Happening in Cuba?" distributed by the FPCC in Chicago. The aims and purposes of the FPCC as set forth in this leaflet include the following: "To disseminate the truth, to combat untruth; to publish and distribute factual information which the United States mass media suppresses. In general, to contribute to foundations for peace, friendship, and understanding between ourselves and the Cuban people." The leaflet reflects the FPCC plans to accomplish these aims: "By mailing of informational bulletins; organizing public meetings and forums; providing speakers, movies, and slides for meetings of interested organizations, placing ads in newspapers; to visit Cuba and see for themselves what conditions really are."

A third source advised on March 9, 1964, that there has been no activity of the FPCC in Chicago since late November, 1963, and for all intents and purposes the organization is defunct.

The mailing address for the FPCC, Chicago Chapter, is Post Office Box 4474, Chicago 80, Illinois.

APPENDIX

FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE

The April 6, 1960, edition of "The New York Times" newspaper contained a full-page advertisement captioned "What Is Really Happening in Cuba," placed by the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC). This advertisement announced the formation of the FPCC in New York City and declared the FPCC intended to promulgate "the truth about revolutionary Cuba" to neutralize the distorted American press.

"The New York Times" edition of January 11, 1961, reported that at a hearing conducted before the United States Senate Internal Security Subcommittee on January 10, 1961, Dr. CHARLES A. SANTOS-BUCH identified himself and ROBERT T. TABER as organizers of the FPCC. He also testified he and TABER obtained funds from the Cuban Government which were applied toward the cost of the aforementioned advertisement.

On May 16, 1963, a source advised that during the first two years of the FPCC's existence there was a struggle between Communist Party (CP) and Socialist Workers Party (SWP) elements to exert their power within the FPCC and thereby influence FPCC policy. This source added that during the past year there had been a successful effort by FPCC leadership to minimize the role of these and other organizations in the FPCC so that their influence as of May, 1963, was negligible.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

On May 20, 1963, a second source advised that VINCENT "TED" LEE, FPCC National Office Director, was then formulating FPCC policy and had indicated that he had no intention of permitting FPCC policy to be determined by any other organization. This source stated that LEE believed that the FPCC should advocate resumption of diplomatic relations between Cuba and the United States and should support the right of Cubans to manage their revolution without interference from other nations. LEE did not advocate supporting the Cuban revolution per se.

APPENDIX

The November 23, 1963, edition of "The New York Times" reported that Senator THOMAS J. DODD of Connecticut had called FPCC "the chief public relations instrument of the Castro network in the United States." It is to be noted that Senator DODD was a member of the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee which twice conducted hearings on the FPCC.

The December 27, 1963, edition of "The New York World Telegram and Sun" newspaper stated that the pro-CASTRO FPCC was seeking to go out of business and that its prime activity during its lifetime had been sponsorship of pro-CASTRO street rallies and mass picket lines, and the direction of an active propaganda mill highlighting illegal travel-to-Cuba campaigns. Its comparatively brief span of life was attributed to mounting anti-CASTRO American public opinion, the 1962 Congressional hearings which disclosed FPCC financing by CASTRO's United Nations Delegation, and ultimately, the bad publicity which the FPCC received from disclosure of activities on its behalf by suspected presidential assassin LEE H. OSWALD.

On February 6, 1964, the previously mentioned second source advised that V. T. LEE had recently remarked that the FPCC was dead and that there were no plans to organize another similar organization.

On April 13, 1964, a third source advised that there had not been any FPCC activity in many months and that the FPCC had been dissolved.

APPENDIX

FREEDOM OF THE PRESS COMMITTEE, Aka.
Committee for Freedom of the Press

A source advised on May 13, 1966, that for several years past, the Communist Party (CP) of Illinois used the name Freedom of the Press Committee and variations of this name to sponsor open CP rallies and meetings which usually featured national CP leaders as speakers. This name was used to attract persons who were not CP members who would not have attended if the meetings were held under the direct sponsorship of the CP.

When the name Freedom of the Press Committee was used merely as a name to sponsor open CP activity, it was totally unrelated to Freedom of the Press group activities in the Chicago area which were concerned with the circulation and finances of "The Worker" or was used as an "umbrella" name under which CP members could meet to be briefed on Party policy.

During the past year the Freedom of the Press designation has fallen into disuse. On the rare occasions when it has been referred to it has been in name only, those using it understanding that no such organization exists. More and more the CP identifies CP literature as prepared by the CP and the practice of showing the Freedom of the Press as a sponsoring group seems to have been abandoned. When Party members meet to discuss "The Worker" circulation and funds, they refer to themselves as a CP press or editorial group.

"The Worker" is an East Coast communist newspaper.

APPENDIXFRIDAY NIGHT SOCIALIST FORUM,
Also known as Militant Labor Forum

On May 2, 1966, a source advised that the Forum is a paper organization set up by the Chicago Branch, Socialist Workers Party(CBSWP), Chicago, Illinois, for Socialist Workers Party (SWP) members and sympathizers. Open meetings held under the auspices of this Forum are geared to the activities that the SWP is pursuing at a particular time, e.g., unemployment, election campaign, Cuba, segregation, etc.

SUZANNE BUCH, a CBSWP member, is in charge of the Forum and schedules meetings under the name of the Forum in order to conceal the SWP sponsorship of same. The meetings of the Forum generally are held at Chicago SWP headquarters although the Forum, in the past, has sponsored other affairs, such as meetings, socials and picnics held at other locations.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

PITTSBURGH COMMITTEE TO END THE WAR IN VIET NAM

On September 22, 1965, a source made available a copy of a two-page document entitled, "The DuBois Summer Project at Pittsburgh," which was used in connection with the National Conference of the W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America (DCA), which was held in Chicago, Illinois, on September 4-6, 1965. The document, which reviewed certain projects undertaken by the Pittsburgh Chapter, DCA, at Pittsburgh, Pa., during the summer of 1965, set forth that the Pittsburgh Committee to End the War in Viet Nam (PCEWV) was organized by the Pittsburgh Chapter, DCA, during the summer of 1965 as a peace movement around the issue of the war in Viet Nam.

On January 13, 1966, a second source advised that as of January 10, 1966, the PCEWV followed the Communist Party line in opposing United States involvement in the war in Viet Nam. The PCEWV had participated in demonstrations with the Pittsburgh Chapter, DCA, urging an end to the war in Viet Nam.

The second source further advised that as of January 10, 1966, the officers of the PCEWV were FRANK GOLDSMITH, Chairman and Treasurer, and VICTORIA "Vicki" COOPER, Co-Chairman and Secretary.

On August 19, 1965, the second source, above, advised that on August 16, 1965, FRANK GOLDSMITH and VICKI COOPER attended a meeting of the Pittsburgh Chapter, DCA, which was held at Pittsburgh.

On September 21, 1965, a third source advised that as of that date he understood that some of the more active members of the PCEWV were members of the Pittsburgh Chapter, DCA, and that both of these organizations held the same views for winning the war in Viet Nam.

PRAGA PRESS

A source advised on May 4, 1966, that Praga Press, Incorporated, 1510 West 18th Street, Chicago, Illinois, was organized as a printing company in January, 1943. At that time, the company regularly printed "Nova Doba," a Czech-language publication, and about 31 other publications which were, for the most part, union shop newspapers for labor unions.

A second source advised on May 9, 1966, that this organization at the present time primarily concerns itself with the printing of "Nova Doba," "Ludove Noviny," and "Narodni Glasnik," Czech, Slovak, and Croatian-language weekly newspapers, respectively, which are communist dominated and follow the Communist Party (CP) line. In addition, Praga Press has in the past printed the "Party Forum," which was the official monthly organ of the CP, Illinois District.

PROGRESSIVE LABOR PARTY

A source advised on April 20, 1965, that the Progressive Labor Party (PLP), formerly known as the Progressive Labor Movement (PLM), held its first national convention April 15-18, 1965, at New York City, to organize the PLM into a PLP. The PLP will have as its ultimate objective the establishment of a militant working class movement based in Marxism-Leninism.

The "New York Times" City Edition, Tuesday, April 20, 1965, page 27, reported that a new party of "revolutionary socialism" was formally founded on April 18, 1965, under the name of the PLP. The PLP was described as an outgrowth of the PLM. Its officers were identified as MILTON ROSEN, New York, President, and WILLIAM EPTON of New York, and MORT SCHEER of San Francisco, Vice Presidents. A 20-member National Committee was elected to direct the party until the next convention.

According to the article, "The Progressive Labor Movement was founded in 1962 by Mr. ROSEN and Mr. SCHEER after they were expelled from the Communist Party of the United States for assertedly following the Chinese Communist line."

The PLP publishes "Progressive Labor," a bimonthly magazine, "Challenge," a biweekly New York City newspaper, and "Spark," a west coast newspaper.

The June 1, 1965, issue of "Challenge," page 6, states that "this paper is dedicated to fight for a new way of life-where the working men and women own and control their homes, factories, the police, courts, and the entire government on every level."

The source advised that the PLP utilizes the address of General Post Office Box 808, Brooklyn 1, New York, but also utilizes an office in Room 622, 132 Nassau Street, New York City, where PLP publications are prepared.

SOCIALIST WORKERS PARTY, CHICAGO BRANCH

On May 2, 1966, a source advised that it was his understanding that the currently active Chicago Branch of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) was one of the founding branches of the SWP at a 1938 Chicago Trotskyist Convention, and it follows the aims and principles of the SWP which maintains national headquarters in New York City.

Members of the Chicago Branch serve on the SWP National Committee, and per capita membership dues and a sustaining fund quota are sent by this branch on a monthly basis to SWP National Headquarters.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

APPENDIXW.E.B. DU BOIS CLUBS
OF CHICAGO (DCC)

On May 3, 1965, a source advised that on June 30, 1964, a group of young people who attended the founding convention of the W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America (DCA), met in Chicago and adopted a statement of purpose and constitution forming the DCC as an affiliate of the national DCA.

This source further advised that at a meeting of the Chicago Area of the Midwest Region of the DCA held April 3, 1965, the boundary of the Chicago Area was established to include all of Illinois north of Springfield, Illinois, and all of Indiana. At this meeting, TED PEARSON was elected Area Coordinator.

A second source advised on May 9, 1966, that as of May, 1966, TED PEARSON, Chairman of the Youth Club of the Communist Party (CP) of Illinois, continued to be the Chicago Area Coordinator of the DCA, and the official headquarters is located at the PEARSON apartment, 1808 North Cleveland Avenue, Chicago, Illinois.

The second source advised that there are currently two clubs operating in the Chicago Area, one on the west side and the other on the near north side. The west side club operates a club house known as the West Side Freedom Center at 2908 West Madison Street which is open seven days a week to the teen-agers on the west side.

W.E.B. DU BOIS CLUBS OF AMERICA (DCA)

A source has advised that on October 26-27, 1963, a conference of members of the Communist Party (CP), including national functionaries, met in Chicago, Illinois, for the purpose of setting in motion forces for the establishment of a new national Marxist-oriented youth organization which would hunt for the most peaceful transition to socialism. The delegates were told that it would be reasonable to assume that the young socialists attracted into this new organization would eventually pass into the CP itself.

A second source has advised that the founding convention for the new youth organization was held from June 19-21, 1964, at 150 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, California, at which time the name W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America (DCA) was adopted. Approximately 500 delegates from throughout the United States attended this convention. The aims of this organization, as set forth in the preamble to the constitution, are: "it is our belief that this nation can best solve its problems in an atmosphere of peaceful coexistence, complete disarmament and true freedom for all peoples of the world, and that these solutions will be reached mainly through the united efforts of all democratic elements in our country, composed essentially of the working people allied in the unity of Negroes and other minorities with whites. We further fully recognize that the greatest threat to American democracy comes from the racist and right wing forces in coalition with the most reactionary sections of the economic power structure, using the tool of anti-Communism to divide and destroy the unified struggle of the working people."

Over the Labor Day weekend, 1965, the DCA held a conference in Chicago, Illinois, and a new slate of officers was elected to the National Executive Committee (NEC) of the DCA. Since Labor Day, 1965, identities of those serving on the NEC has varied; however, according to a third source as of May, 1966, thirteen of the fifteen members of the NEC were members of the CP in the San Francisco Bay area.

As of July, 1966, the headquarters of the DCA was located at 180 North Wacker Drive, Chicago, Illinois.

(Internal Security Subcommittee of the Senate Judiciary Committee, Handbook for Americans, S. Doc. 117, April 23, 1956, p.93, also p.59.)

YOUNG SOCIALIST ALLIANCE-CHICAGO,
Also known as Young Socialist
Supporters, University Young Socialists

A source advised in late November, 1959, that the Young Socialist Alliance-Chicago (YSA-C), formerly known as Young Socialist Supporters, had its origin in a series of informal discussions held in Chicago prior to June, 1959, among individuals who were close to the Socialist Workers Party (SWP).

The YSA-C as of November, 1959, proclaimed itself to be a city-wide revolutionary youth organization designed to build socialism in America and aimed toward youth on college campuses in the Chicago area and as being independent of all adult groupings.

According to a second source in May, 1966, the YSA-C, also known as the University Young Socialists, was considered the youth group of the Chicago Branch SWP and affiliated with the national organization of the YSA in New York. The YSA-C officers as of May, 1966, were current members or sympathizers of the Chicago SWP.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

YOUNG SOCIALIST ALLIANCE

The May, 1960, issue of the "Young Socialist" (YS), page 1, column 3, disclosed that during April 15-17, 1960, a national organization entitled "The Young Socialist Alliance" (YA) was established at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. This issue stated that this organization was formed by the nationwide supporter clubs of the publication YS.

The above issue, page 6, set forth the Founding Declaration of YSA. This declaration stated that the YSA recognizes the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) as the only existing political leadership on class struggle principles, and that the supporters of the YS have come into basic political solidarity with the SWP on the principles of revolutionary socialism.

A source advised on May 23, 1966, that the original YSA was an organization formed during October, 1957, in New York City by youth of various left socialist tendencies, particularly members and followers of the SWP. The leaders of this group were the guiding forces in the establishment of the national organization.

The source further advised on May 23, 1966, that the YSA is dominated and controlled on a national basis by the SWP through having SWP members comprise exclusively the National Executive Committee (NEC). The YSA, in reality, is the youth and training section of the SWP and the main source of new SWP members.

The headquarters of the YSA are located in Room 535, 41 Union Square West, New York City.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

APPENDIXMAY 2 MOVEMENT

A source advised on March 3, 1965, as follows:

The May 2 Movement (M2M), formerly known as the May 2 Committee, was organized on March 14, 1964, at New Haven, Connecticut, by a group of young people participating in a symposium "Socialism in America" being held at Yale University. The original aim of the M2M was to plan and execute a demonstration in New York City on May 2, 1964, demanding withdrawal of United States troops from Viet Nam.

The M2M was dominated and controlled by the Progressive Labor Party (PLP) and had for its aim and purpose the embarrassment of the United States government by meetings, rallies, picketing demonstrations and formation of university level clubs at which a Marxist-Leninist oriented approach and analysis was taken of United States domestic and foreign policies. This source advised on May 19, 1965, that the headquarters of the M2M was 640 Broadway, New York City, Room 307.

A second source advised on February 9, 1966, that the M2M was officially dissolved as an organization on February 9, 1966, at a meeting held on the same date in New York City by the leadership of M2M and the Progressive Labor Party.

that it will work with any organization including Communists, which protests the United States intervention in Viet Nam and the Selective Service System's methods for drafting youth to fight in Viet Nam, etc.

The SDS has a current program of protesting the draft and actively promotes a campaign for youth to develop a conscientious objector status. The basis of the SDS program is that the United States intervention in Viet Nam is an "unjust war" and they assert this conclusion on moral, political and religious grounds.

In connection with the Draft, some of the radical elements within the SDS have been involved in draft card burning, however, the National Office claims to object to such tactics, but at the same time leaves such actions up to the individual SDS members.

The SDS in the Chicago area has chapters located at the University of Chicago (approximately 50 members); Roosevelt University (approximately 35 members); University of Illinois, Chicago Campus (approximately 17 members); Illinois Institute of Technology, Chicago, Illinois (approximately 11 members); Northwestern University, Evanston, Illinois (approximately 30 - 50 members); Northern Illinois University, DeKalb, Illinois (approximately 10 - 15 members), and Lake Forest College, Lake Forest, Illinois (approximately 10 members).

Nationally the SDS claims a membership of varying amounts, none of which appear to be very accurate. This membership, at various times during the past few months ranged from 3,500 to 5,500 members in over 200 chapters.

The SDS also has an Economic Research and Action Project (ERAP), a Radical Educational Project (REP) and its JOIN Program, previously mentioned, which is the SDS' Community Action Program among the poor, deprived, and unemployed people in the Chicago area.

C. Participation in Meeting of
Students Against Rank (SAR)
June 23, 1966

On June 23, 1966, members of the SDS participated in a meeting of the SAR at the University of Chicago. At this meeting the SAR made proposals for action during this summer. This action called for the contacting of the faculty and trying to get easy concessions from them, then harder concessions afterwards. The meeting discussed presenting SAR views to freshmen in the fall, the contacting of high school principals, Congressmen, corporation managers, etc., and advising them of the SAR program. At the meeting it was decided that SAR would coordinate its activities with SDS to formulate specific demands from the university this coming fall. Arrangements were also made to stage a demonstration at the University of Chicago on August 1, 1966, or whatever date the university sends in students' ranks to the draft board.

At this meeting JACKIE GOLDBERG stated that "they" must decide whether they were to take a stand on 1) rank, draft, Selective Service; 2) the question of students and faculty being the deciding power at the University of Chicago; 3) national foreign policy, i.e., the war, consolidating all of the above three.

GOLDBERG also indicated that she wanted a demonstration on Hiroshima Day and wanted SAR to take a positive stand against the war in Viet Nam.

Approval was given to the selecting of a Policy Committee to do a one month's study and formulate a definite policy. Also at the above meeting it was announced that Professor MAX-PRIMACK of the Illinois Institute of Technology (IIT), who was not at the meeting, was organizing a Faculty Committee that will help students to stage speak-outs in front of the Federal Building in Chicago, Illinois.

CG 100-40903

MAX PRIMACK

At a Chicago Branch, Socialist Workers Party (SWP) Executive Committee meeting held July 18, 1966, during a discussion on anti-war work, it was mentioned that a letter had been received from MAX PRIMACK appealing for money to pay for the August 6th anti-war demonstration. This letter from PRIMACK was to be reproduced and mimeographed at the Chicago Branch, SWP Office.

ANDY RAKOCHY

The March - April, 1966 edition of "Progressive Labor" Volume 5, Number 3, self-described as the official monthly publication of the Progressive Labor Party, lists RAKOCHY as a member of the Editorial Board.

SUSAN ROBBINS

In May, 1966, ROBBINS was no longer attending Lake Forest College in Lake Forest, Illinois, and apparently was working full time for SDS at their headquarters in Chicago. ROBBINS had been heard to state that she would like to teach young children and in the process instruct them in the necessity of an eventual revolution in this country.

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY
(Estudiantes por una Sociedad Democratica) (SDS)

In its edition of August 13, 1966, the Spanish language weekly, "Marcha" (March) published at Montevideo, Uruguay, carried a "Telegram From Berkeley," addressed to "Marcha, Rincon 577, Montevideo" which read as follows:

"Requiere retransmit Argentine University Federation. We express our fraternal solidarity with students and members Argentine Universities submitted to the brutal repression of military dictatorship." The telegram was signed "Students For a Democratic Society, Berkeley, USA."

With regard to the publication, "Marcha," T-1 has advised that this is a Marxist line newspaper whose director, Carlos Quijano, consistently follows an anti-United States line and who is a close friend of Rodney Arismendi, First Secretary of the Communist Party of Uruguay.

With regard to the Argentine University Federation (Federacion Universitaria Argentina - FUA), T-2 has informed that this is a communist dominated organization in Argentina.

INFORMATIVE NOTE

Date 10/7/66

Students for a Democratic Society is a militant youth group which has been extremely active in opposition to U.S. policy in Vietnam and has received support from the Communist Party. Information in this teletype is typical of irresponsible actions of this organization. Bureau files are being reviewed concerning Art Rosenbloom and the statement appearing in "New Left Notes" will be reviewed on receipt from the Field and appropriate action will be recommended.

Re Chicago teletype 10/7/66.

Enclosed herewith for the Bureau are two copies of Volume 1, #38, dated 10/7/66 of the "New Left Notes" (NLN), weekly publication of SDS, which on page one contains an article by ART ROSENBLUM of the SDS National Office, Chicago.

This article captioned "Communists in SDS?--A Resolution" states that in recent days J. EDGAR HOOVER made a speech in which he charged that the civil rights and anti-war movements are actually infiltrated by communists. The article reflects that he specifically mentioned SDS as an organization in which card carrying communists are known to be hiding. The article stated that for once J. EDGAR HOOVER is right in that there are some communists in SDS, and that these communists have openly admitted their membership in both organizations. Further, that what J. EDGAR HOOVER did not say was that there are also some members of the FBI in SDS. However, no member of the FBI has been open enough to admit his dual membership. Therefore it must be concluded, according to the article, that communists are on the average somewhat more honest than FBI people.

The article reflects that the SDS is an open organization which welcomes all who seek solutions to the problems of today and that SDS welcomes both communist members as well as members of the FBI.

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover
Federal Bureau of Investigation
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

I am writing to bring to your attention something which you may already know about, but which I think may be serious enough to call to someone's attention.

The woman who rooms with me is the journalism advisor at San Pedro High School in California. She has in her possession a pamphlet which was loaned to her by another faculty member who, in turn, borrowed it from one of the students at San Pedro High School. The pamphlet is published by the Students for a Democratic Society and is entitled, "High School Reform: Towards a Student Movement." The address listed on the front is 1103 East 63rd Street, Chicago, Illinois 60637 (Phone: A.C. 312/667-6050). The price is ten cents. It was published at the SDS Printing Office in Lawrence, Kansas and written by Mark Kleiman who was, according to the pamphlet, a student at a southern California high school in 1965. The publication date on the pamphlet is 1966.

Among other things, which I am sure you can anticipate, the pamphlet advocates "underground" newspapers such as those already begun, so the author tells us, at Palisades, Westchester, and Arcadia High Schools in California.

According to the information I received from [REDACTED] there is a rumor that such a newspaper will begin circulation at San Pedro High School, and there are meetings going on now on Pacific Street and on Eleventh Street in San Pedro. She was not told the addresses.

If I can get a copy of the pamphlet, I will forward it to you. At the moment, this is all the information I can give you. [REDACTED] feels she wants to find out more at school; it may all mean nothing. I rather incline toward leaving investigation to the investigators. Either way, you'd be more likely to know than we would.

Yours very truly

Dear Mr. Hoover:

I am a junior here at Northern Illinois University in DeKalb, Illinois and have a request of you.

I would like your opinion and some information about the SDS, Students for a Democratic Society, as I would like to know about them.

At the present the SDS is in small numbers but their acts are beginning to increase. Tonight at a college lecture they flew, I believe it to have been them, a Northvietnamese flag which is the first of its kind here at Northern I believe.

Sincerely yours,

SUBJECT: STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY,
"BLACK POWER CONFERENCE"
10/29/66, BERKELEY, CALIFORNIA

NOVEMBER 8TH MOBILIZATION COMMITTEE
DEMONSTRATIONS NOVEMBER 5 - 8, 1966

The Vice President called at 12:30 p. m. today and asked that I come over and see him immediately. He stated he was leaving town for Minneapolis at approximately 2:00 p. m. and would like to briefly discuss some recent developments concerning the captioned matters.

Upon seeing the Vice President at 1:00 p. m., he asked if the FBI knew what group was behind the "Black Power Conference" held on 10/29/66 at Berkeley, California. I told him that I had made a quick check prior to leaving the office and had ascertained that the Students for a Democratic Society, a militant youth group which has received a great deal of support from the Communist Party and which the head of the Communist Party has claimed as "one of his own," had sponsored this activity. I stated there had been four to five thousand people present at the University of California where Stokely Carmichael spoke. The Vice President was told that Carmichael had spoken for approximately one hour and had discussed in generalities both foreign and domestic affairs. I stated that he had called leading figures in the Administration some rather rough names and in addition had indicated his complete opposition to the draft. I told the Vice President that one Harold Jacobs, who was the leader of the Students for a Democratic Society on the University of California campus, had been one of the leading figures in setting up this activity.

The Vice President stated that he was sick and tired of hearing of Stokely Carmichael. He stated he had just received a call from Governor Pat Brown of California and that Brown had known nothing about the above-mentioned rally. The Vice President stated he had told Governor Brown that he should come out immediately and denounce Stokely Carmichael and also "those damned subversives on the University of California campus." The Vice President stated he had told Brown that Carmichael was no good and furthermore if Brown expected to get any votes from the subversives on the California campus he should have his head examined. The Vice President then told me that he fully expected Governor Brown to "get the hell beat out of him on November 8th" unless Brown started denouncing Carmichael and people of like ilk.

Re: Students for a Democratic Society
November 8th Mobilization Committee

The Vice President asked me where Stokely Carmichael obtained funds. He quickly added that Carmichael seemed to have a plentiful supply of money. I told him that we of course knew that Carmichael received contributions, however, we very frankly did not have as much information as we need to have concerning Carmichael. The Vice President asked me why. I told him that even though Carmichael was no longer an authentic civil rights leader, he nevertheless was regarded as such by numerous groups throughout the country, including some members of the Administration. I stated that as a result it was very difficult for the FBI to conduct an open investigation concerning this man. I mentioned that the Director had requested permission from the Department of Justice previously to install a wiretap on Carmichael, yet the then Attorney General Katzenbach had turned us down. I stated that the Director had a request currently pending with Ramsey Clark for a wiretap, yet it looked like Clark might also turn us down. The Vice President heatedly stated, "You tell Ramsey Clark that this would be a ridiculous thing to do and tell him I said this." The Vice President then stated that Carmichael was most certainly not a civil rights figure and that the FBI should use every possible device to keep track of him. He stated he felt that by all means we should maintain a wiretap on this man.

The Vice President asked me if Carmichael was close to the communists. I told him that Carmichael very definitely associated with communists, espoused their causes, and in view of his deliberate statements against law and order, he should be regarded as a most dangerous person.

The Vice President stated he had heard from some source that a group was sponsoring demonstrations in cities throughout the United States between November 5 and 8, 1966, as a protest against the war in Vietnam. He stated he understood these were called "peace groups." He asked me if the FBI knew what groups were behind these demonstrations and activities. I replied that officials of the committee sponsoring these activities included members of the Communist Party and the Socialist Workers Party. The Vice President asked specifically what group was behind such activities in San Francisco. I told him that the United Committee Against the War, which is controlled by members of the Socialist Workers Party, was sponsoring this activity and, as a matter of fact, they planned to challenge the commanding officer of the presidio to a debate on the war in Vietnam.

DeLoach to Tolson memo, 10/31/66
Re: Students for a Democratic Society
November 8th Mobilization Committee

The Vice President asked me if I knew the current whereabouts of Stokely Carmichael. I told him when last heard of, Carmichael was in California, however, this was as of October 29, 1966. He stated he would like to know as expeditiously as possible, Carmichael's present whereabouts and any scheduled travel that Carmichael had for the near future. I told him we would attempt to get this information.

The Vice President inquired concerning the Director and I told him that the Director was in fine shape and would be pleased to hear from him.

ACTION: (1) I have instructed the Domestic Intelligence Division to obtain the current whereabouts of Stokely Carmichael and any schedule for future travel of Carmichael as expeditiously as possible.

OK -

(Domestic Intelligence)

(2) The Acting Attorney General has indicated that he desires to discuss further some time today the matter of a wiretap on Stokely Carmichael. If the Director approves, I will tell Mr. Clark at that time the sentiments of the Vice President in connection with this matter. The President, as the Director knows, has also expressed a desire to obtain as complete information as possible concerning Carmichael.

OK.

I doubt Clark will give us the authority needed.
